

Students from Steven's Point UW were invited to Abiding Shepherd on Saturday, April 24, to educate and engage the local community in different ways we can be good stewards of God's creation - including some interesting critters! We were also able to showcase businesses from our members! Thanks to Jordan Gade & classmates for organizing this event.

